

STUDENT ASSISTANT (UNDER-GRADUATE/GRADUATE) WANTED!

The Chair of Public Economics is seeking a student assistant to support the chair. Main task: assisting the coordination of the new study program in International Economic Studies (IES).

Starting date: As soon as possible.

The work at our chair as a student assistant provides you with experience working in a university and in particular the coordination of a study program. Assisting the subject advisor for IES, Maximilian Pöhnlein, you will answer Emails of prospective students of the program and provide them with information on the application process and program content. Moreover, you will help organize the study start of new student cohorts and create material for webpages and events.

The expected workload is 4 hours per week.

We are looking for motivated candidates that are able to work effectively in both English and German. Further, we request the ability to work independently and reliably communicate with the team. Knowledge of Microsoft Office and a good command of English language are required. Experience with Latex and Stata are an asset, but not a requirement. If you are interested in this position, send us your application, including CV, current grades, and letter of motivation. We highly encourage students of the Bachelor in International Economic Studies to apply at our chair.

Send your application, preferably as a single pdf until June 30, 2021 to:

Lehrstuhl für Volkswirtschaftslehre,
insbesondere Finanzwissenschaft
Lange Gasse 20
90403 Nürnberg

wiso-finanzwissenschaft@fau.de

We are looking forward to your application.